

Our Contributors

Rev Dr Lehel Molnár is the archivist at the Unitarian Archives in Kolozsvár, Transylvania, Romania.

Rev Rosemary Bray McNatt is President of the Starr King School for Ministry, Berkeley, California.

Alisha Rani is a professor in the sociology department in Saint Dominic's College, Shillong, India.

Rev Dr Qiyamah A. Rahman is an author, minister and activist in the Virgin Islands, USA.

Rev Dr Ann Peart is a former Principal of the Unitarian College, Manchester.

Rev Mária Pap is minister of Mansfield Unitarian Church in the UK, having trained for the ministry in Kolozsvár and served in Transylvania.

Olga Flores is a scholar and activist who has been active in developing the Unitarian Universalist movement in Latin America for many years.

Rev Mark Harris is a retired Unitarian Universalist minister and a member of the Core Reckoning Planning Group.

Wayne Facer is a New Zealand historian and biographer. He completed an economics degree at the University of Auckland and postgraduate studies in history at Massey University. He has written numerous journal articles about bioethical issues, healthcare reform and health education, and history. Specialising in Unitarian history, he is the author of A Vision Splendid (2nd ed., 2018, Blackstone Editions) and Prophet at the Gate (2021, Blackstone Editions).

Barrie Needham was born and bred in England. He is emeritus professor of spatial planning at the Radboud University, Nijmegen, the Netherlands.

Graham Murphy was minister at Ullet Road Church, Liverpool and Principal of the Unitarian College, Manchester. He subsequently worked as a gardener and wrote three books published by the National Trust. He is also the author of Land of Sacred Legends, a Guide to Early Christian Sites in north-west Wales, Sigma Press.

Feergus O'Connor has, since 2006, been Honorary Secretary of the World Congress of Faiths and was a founding member of the Animal Interfaith Alliance and has served as its chair since 2014. He trained for the Unitarian ministry at Harris Manchester College, Oxford and was awarded an MA in 'Death and Immortality' by the University of Wales in 2009. He has served as minister of Golders Green Unitarians in North London since September 2001. He has led the only annual interfaith celebration of animals in the UK since 2004.

David A. Williams is Emeritus Perren Professor of Astronomy at University College London, and a former President of the Royal Astronomical Society.

Derek McAuley is President of the Unitarian Historical Society. He was Chief Officer of the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches from 2009 until 2019. He contributed the chapter on 'Unitarian Women in Ireland' to Ann Peart's Unitarian Women: A Legacy of Dissent (Lindsey Press, 2019).